

Sustainable Home 101

Waste Reduction at Home

Q&A's on the 3 R's: What can be recycled?

Reducing hazardous chemical use in homes and gardens

Waste reduction: A Burning Question

Zero Waste: How to plan for events, parties and meetings

A "Conservation Conversation": roundtable to share ideas on reducing energy and water use and costs

Helen Venada
San Juan County Waste Reduction & Hazardous Waste Coordinator

Sustainable Home 102

Save Money with Low Impact Development Compatible Techniques

Summary of first LEED certified home on San Juan Island by Glen Bruels (owner), in conjunction with Jonathan Hu of Ravenhill Construction.

Site Analysis

Slope Stabilization

Wetland Preservation and Restoration

Utilizing Natural Drainage

Stream Bank Protection

Retaining Native Vegetation

Problem ID and Solutions

Sample Materials

Presentation by
John Oldenburger, Propex Inc.

Moderator: Susan Key
San Juan Islands
Conservation District

Sustainable Home 103

Native Plants

Benefits of Maintaining and Using Native Plants in Residential Landscaping

Tips and Techniques for Native Plantings

Fiona Norris
San Juan
Nature Institute

